PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

Greetings Ladies,

My name is Alexandra (Alex) Hazlett, and I am the 2017-2018 President. I am excited and honored to serve as this year's President. My goal for the coming year is to encourage each member to support women's athletics by attending events/games on Campus. These female athletes are potentially our future members. Our February speaker will be Stephanie Ellison, who will talk about women's sports and Title 9. Please plan to attend.

On behalf of our First Lady and Honorary President, Beth Clements, and the 2017-2018 CUWC Executive Board, I welcome you to become a part of a wonderful group of ladies that strive to encourage one another and help those new to Clemson acclimate themselves to the community and University.

We have an array of programs and interest groups planned and I hope that you will find something that appeals to you. It will be a pleasure meeting you. If you did not receive an invitation in the mail ...

Yearbooks are distributed at no cost to dues paying members. Yearbooks will be available at the December meeting. The delay is intentional so as to include as many members as possible and avoid printing a supplemental list. Mailings are not possible due to cost.

DO YOU KNOW A CUWC HERO?

Do you know a CUWC member that has impacted the Clemson community? Is very involved? Has she been an example for others? Has she been a positive example to you or your family? If so, please tell us who it is and why you believe they should be recognized as a CUWC HERO, and submit it by email to clemsonwomansclub@gmail.com or in person to a member of the CUWC Executive Board. Members of the Executive Board will select one person each meeting from all submissions received throughout the year. This will not only highlight an outstanding lady, but also help us to get to know fellow CUWC members.

SCHOLARSHIP

CUWC is proud to sponsor the Clemson University Woman's Club Scholarship Endowment. The scholarship was established in 1990 under the leadership of Edith Hammond. We would like to increase the amount of this endowment each year. Please consider making a contribution to support this endowment. (See registration/membership form.)
